Welcome to the Musée des Arts Décoratifs

Created in the 19th century as a source of inspiration for artists and craftspeople, the Musée des Arts Décoratifs is home to one of the world's largest and finest collections of decorative art, with over one-and-a-half million artworks.

Encompassing furniture, fine tableware, objets d'art, design, jewelry, glass, ceramics, Asian arts and more, the museum collections are testament to a constant quest for harmony between beauty and utility.

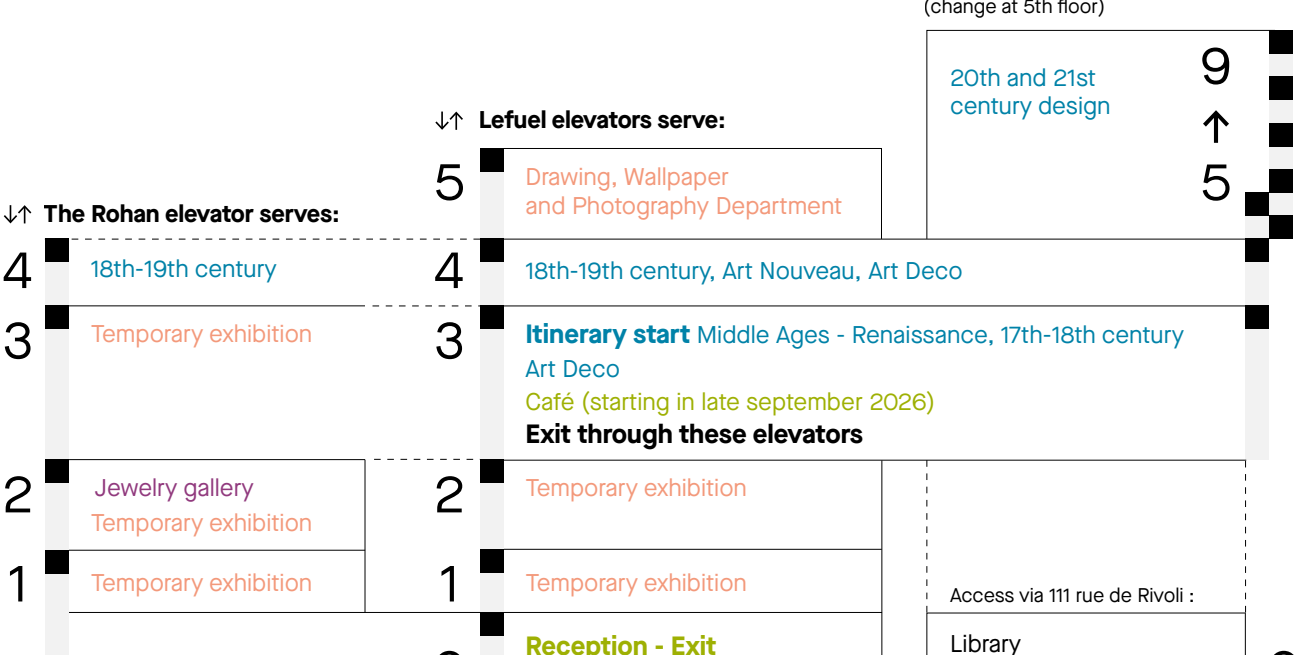

Due to their fragility, not all the collections are permanently on display. Drawings, photographs, wallpaper samples, toys, fashion and textiles, graphic design and advertising are presented on an ad-hoc basis as part of exhibitions and presentations.

Set over seven floors with a selection of around 6,000 objects, the permanent itinerary invites you on a fascinating tour through eight centuries of creativity and innovation, the art of living, style and the history of taste.

Embark on a journey from the Middle Ages rooms to those celebrating Art Nouveau, which in turn open the doors to 20th and 21st century design.

Marvel at the jewelry gallery, which showcases 1,200 antique and contemporary pieces.

Enjoy your visit!
